Andover's new, and first, town manager - appointed by the Selectmen late last week - is characterized as a man of "ability", "integrity" and "hard working" by both personal and independent references.

Thomas E. Duff, city manager of Claremont, N.H. since 1957, received the unanimous support of the five Selectmen, who set his starting salary at $11,000. He presently receives $8,500 in Claremont.

In making available Mr. Duff's references, Chairman Eugene A. Bernardin Jr. said the Board was specially impressed by independent comment solicited in Claremont, in addition to the normal check on supplied references.

The independent source said, in part, "I would have to recommend him to you for personal integrity, ability and personality". This source commented, however,

Mosquito Project Under Fire; Withdrawal Seen

The Selectmen have received a report stating that the Essex County Mosquito Control project - for which the town is assessed $10,515 by the state - probably would be useless to the community.

A report from Assessor Archie Maclaren quoted an official of the State Department of Agriculture as believing that the program of control would be of little benefit to a community partially surrounded by towns not participating in the control work.

The Selectmen promptly discussed calling a special town

Bridge Closed For New Construction

Work on the Ballardvale bridge is mostly confined to demolishing the old structure this week, according to Highway Supt. Stanley Chlebowski.

The D Construction Co. started the job late last week, after putting up a foot bridge across the river at the bridge site. Cars can't get across the stream, however.

Chlebowski said he hopes the company will complete the work earlier than the 60 working days specified in the contract, based on the fact that the outfit has a bridge contract with the state for Route 125, which it is eager to get underway.

Traffic that normally goes across the bridge is being re-routed during the construction period.

School bus schedules have been revamped to provide transportation for youngsters. Some are being let off the bus on one side of the bridge, directed to walk across, and are being picked up on the other side to finish their trip to school. Supt. Edward I. Erickson worked out the schedule with his drivers, after being notified of the bridge closing.

Virtually a new bridge will be installed, with the piers of the old bridge remaining as a base for the new work.

The structure has been limited to one-way travel for many months, after emergency repairs had to be made to the structure.

The huge machine where the dough is mixed proved very exciting while the various other processes each held their own particular fascination. A sample of the company's doughnuts was well received.

Members of the I-Ha-Ha Camp Fire Girls who have been together since the second grade include Judy Asoian, Jean Blamire, Lynne Ellen Campbell, Mary Lou Carr, Nancy Daly, Betty Jo Gibbons, Kathy Harnedy, Nedra Sanfilippo and Linda Southwell. # TOWN MANAGER IS HIGHLY RECOMMENDED that he was reluctant to provide the reference because Mr. Duff "I personally, and all local people interested in sound management of our city affairs, will be extremely sorry if he finally decides to leave". Other references, whose names were supplied by Mr. Duff, wrote of him in highest praise, as a professional manager and as an individual.

Another Reference

The Andover Townsman this week solicited the comment of the Claremont Eagle, the afternoon newspaper published daily in that city.

Managing Editor Kenneth Whipple said the general feeling among the city's official family and interested citizens is one of regret that Mr. Duff is leaving.

His administration "has been very successful", Mr. Whipple stated emphatically.

THOMAS E. DUFF

He commented "I think he'll make you a good man".

He also characterized Duff as a man who is "easy to get along with".

Personal Background

Mr. Duff comes to Andover with a successful record of administration in two communities — Claremont and Middlebury, Vt. He had formerly been employed as an administrative assistant with the Springfield, Mass., Taxpayers Association and had held a similar post with the Springfield Street Department.

Claremont, in population size, is only slightly smaller than Andover. Its recorded population is 14,000, while this community is now well over the 15,000 mark. In Claremont, he had a municipal budget of $1,540,000.

Educational Data

Duff holds his master's degree from the Maxwell Graduate School of Citizenship and Public Affairs at Syracuse University, and received his A. B. degree from Middlebury College, majoring in political science. He also attended Norwich Free Academy, Norwich, Conn.

Mr. Duff was born in Willimantic, Conn., Sept. 22, 1922. Married, the family includes three sons and two daughters.

He served in the Army from 1943 through 1946, taking part in the Aleutian and Kiska operations, and in Northern Italy, as a member of the ski troops.

Accomplishments

Listed on his application as some of his accomplishments during his tenure in Claremont are the following: re-organized accounting practices; converting to machine operation; construction of a $90,000 bridge across a local river to open area for building; new location for sanitary land-fill operation; sewer extension program, using federal aid when possible; street lighting program; improvement of parks and playgrounds; organized a planning board for a revision of the zoning.

In Middlebury, his application, among other data, lists the reduction of the town's debt by $52,640 as a major item.

Spot Check of References

Mr. Duff's references came from men in diversified fields — a public utility manager, a school superintendent, a college president, a Taxpayers Association director, and from the dean of a graduate school.

Considered to be of particular value, however, was the independent source contacted by the Board, to get an objective view of the man from someone not listed by him as a reference.

This source, whose comments have already partially been listed, also stated:

"I think he does a fine job in a rather awkward situation which must exist because there are still some here who would prefer the old fashioned form of government, and these can and do make it difficult for the manager. . . . Again, my best recommendation would be to say that I would be very sorry to see him leave".

Samuel S. Stratton, president of Middlebury College — where Duff went to school, and the community where he later became manager, said: ". . . I am very glad to recommend Mr. Duff. . . . I regard him as a man of complete integrity, hard working, conscientious and a fine facility for getting along with people".

John L. Coyne, business manager of the Telephone Co. office in Claremont, stated: "He is a man of high integrity and character and is well respected by our community and holds the admiration of his associates in the field of public administration."

Ralph W. Goodrich, superintendent of schools in Amherst, Mass., who held a similar post in Middlebury while Mr. Duff was there, wrote in part:

"I can assure you Tom Duff did an awfully sound job for Middlebury, and I am very confident that he would do likewise for Andover". Roscoe C. Martin of the Maxwell Graduate School at Syracuse University, stated: ". . . is an able, honest, well-trained and experienced manager. He has enjoyed success in his previous assignments . . ."

J. Edward Jones, executive director of the Springfield Taxpayers Association, said, in part: ". . . have been impressed, but not surprised, at his progress as shown in his annual reports. . . it is my firm conviction that he would make an excellent, experienced town manager for Andover".

Detouring Traffic At Sewer Job

Major traffic problems have resulted from the sewer construction in Clark and Dascomb rds., following start of the Realty Construction Company's project there.

The firm, which is paying for the new sewer line, is operating under the close supervision of the sewer department. Supt. Donald Bassett said there has been close cooperation in following town requirements for the installation of the main.

The project requires that Dascomb rd. be shut off — probably for the remainder of this week and most of next. A 12-foot trench is being dug up the center of the road, and despite shoring, the vibration from traffic on one side would create a dangerous condition, according to Supt. Bassett.

He said signs directing traffic towards Tewksbury, which ordinarily would go along Dascomb rd., are being posted in Ballardvale, and also are being placed at the end of Dascomb rd.

The sewer job was only recently recommended by the Board of Health. But representatives of the Realty Construction Co. had stated that the firm has deadlines to meet which require construction to begin promptly.

Ten-inch pipe is being installed in the flat areas, while eight-inch is being put in in some sections. The job will extend as far as Lovejoy rd.

The excavation is being closed in every night, even though this means digging out some of the same trench again the following day. Bassett explained that water seeps into the trench overnight, creating the necessity for pumping the following day if the trench is left open.

He said the excavated area will not be patched immediately, to allow it time to settle. The area will be treated to keep down the dust, he continued.

COMMITTEE MEETING

A meeting of Cub Pack 76 committeemen and den mothers was held last week at the home of Mrs. Ernest Hall on Chester st., Ballardvale.

Plans were made to take the Cubs to the Boston Navy Yard next month.

Attending were Mr. and Mrs. Ellsworth Spencer, Mrs. Ernest Hall, Robert Demers and Daniel Fisher.

PERSONALS

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Pike have returned to their home on River rd., after spending the winter months with relatives in Los Angeles, Cal.

Mrs. Doris Wilder and Lewis Ripley, who have been spending the winter at Apopka, Fla., spent the past weekend as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Fieldhouse of River rd. They were enroute to their summer home in Harrington, Me.

Mrs. B. F. Hatch, 6 Summer st., has returned home after spending five weeks in Fort Worth, Texas.

What Is Food? And What Is Pride?

FOOD IS LIFE

— without it we soon cease to exist. Unless we have it in both quantity and quality, our health suffers. Having access to the world's choicest foods is one of the blessings of being an American. Nothing your dollars can buy is so vital, nothing so intimate that it literally becomes "you."

FOOD IS A SOURCE OF PRIDE AND PLEASURE

You don't have to be a gourmet to enjoy good food, skillfully prepared and attractively served. Good food is the result of fine food production and distribution, wedded to the culinary arts. Fortunate the family where the mother takes pride in choosing foods wisely, in cooking and serving foods with loving care.

Is it any wonder that we at the CO-OP also take pride — in providing you with something so healthful, so pleasurable, so vital to your family's welfare?

Good Things To Eat — and Thrifty, Too!

35 Have Taken Qualifying Test

Thirty-five Andover High students have taken the National Merit Scholarship qualifying test, according to William Igoe, guidance director.

The tests were administered April 28 and is the first step in competition for merit scholarships provided by some 90 corporations, foundations, professional societies and individuals.

The test is a three-hour measure of educational development and college aptitude. Emphasis is on broad intellectual skills and on understanding and ability to use what has been learned, according to Mr. Igoe. He also stressed that results of the test can not be used to measure the effectiveness of a particular school. He pointed out that many factors, other than education, enter into the number of students who become finalists from a school.

MISS SKULSKI RECEIVED CAP

An important milestone in the life of a prospective nurse took place Sunday, May 3, when the Peter Bent Brigham Hospital School of Nursing held its annual Capping Ceremony in the Jimmy Fund Building Auditorium, Boston.

Among the 54 students of the Class of 1961, to whom Miss Dorothy Vernstrom, director of nursing, presented nursing caps, was Miss Janet Skulski, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Skulski, 23 Princeton ave.

Want No Part Of New Meter Device

The Selectmen have shrugged off a suggestion that the town spend $30-$35 per meter, for the installation of a device that will automatically erase remaining time when a car pulls out.

One of the meter companies said its engineers have developed the automatic device to accomplish this, and they suggest that meter receipts can be upped by at least 50 percent.

Water Project May Cost Less

The cost of installing the water main from Elm st. to Haverhill st., for which $80,000 was appropriated, may be as much as $10,000 less than anticipated.

An estimate of costs by the Department of Public Works shows known expenses of $55,329.75, and contingencies of 20 percent are allowed over this amount. Other small expenses may be incurred as well, according to Department officials. Thus the cost could easily be $70,000 or less for the completed job.

The installation of the main, for which bids were received last week, will be done by the Joseph T. Iacuzzi Co. of Attleboro Falls, at a low bid price of $17,580.

Award of the contract was approved Tuesday night by Acting Manager Victor Mill Jr., after engineers Camp, Dresser and McKee recommended the award. The firm said, in a letter, that it found Iacuzzi "to have been highly thought of and his work entirely adequate".

Second low bidder on the project, among a total of 15 bids, was the Pitt Construction Co., at $18,665. George Kelley of Lowell was third at $23,075.

Materials In Hand

Bids had been sought several weeks ago on materials for the project. Most of the pipe and fittings are in hand now, with some of it laid out along the route of the installation.

The main is designed to improve the delivery of water to Shaw-shen, a step needed before solutions can be accomplished for the bad distribution in the Village.

Wide Spread In Bids

The 15 bids on the installation ranged from the low of $17,500 to a high figure of $47,192.

Iacuzzi, the low bidder, was more than $1,000 under his nearest competitor, however. Only the first and second bids were under the $20,000 level, while nine others fell within the $20-30,000 bracket. The bidders, from fourth through 15th, included:

Frank Frederick Construction Co. of East Walpole, $23,740; Cannavino and Shea Inc. of Leominster, $25,295; Pipeline Construction Co. of Dedham, $25,745; E. Susi and Williams Corp. of Dedham, $26,050; Paul Garabedian and Son of Salem Depot, N. H., $26,765; J. ## EDITORIAL THOUGHTS

A Hand In Your Pocket

Someone's always ready to dip a hand into the taxpayers' pockets — usually for some project that is said "to be good for" the taxpayers.

A case in point is the mosquito assessment in excess of $10,000, levied against the town's taxpayers by the state.

It's admirable, we suppose, for the state to worry about controlling mosquitos in Andover, and in other Essex County communities. But what happens to the mosquitos that live just over the town line in Wilmington, or Tewksbury, or in Lawrence or Methuen? They get off free, because Essex County seems to be the only area assessed by the state for a control project.

What earthly good is it to have a mosquito control project if the pests in other communities are free to come into the town, after ours have been killed off?

We object to the assessment on that score.

But we also feel that the town is being victimized by some do-gooder, who hatched this brilliant idea of assessing each community. As far as we can learn, nothing gets done, except the collection of the money from the communities that, for one reason or another, don't withdraw from the plan.

Let's get out of it, while the getting is good. We can save $10,000, and, as far as can be determined, we'll get as good results as we've been getting. In short, nothing.

Free Bidding Justified

It was pleasing to find, Monday night, that the committee of insurance experts and of town employees agrees that specifications for the employees' health and medical insurance should be written so that all companies can bid.

This is a basic ingredient of the program — yet we understand that some communities write the specs in such a way as to preclude bids from many private companies. Whatever disagreement may exist over details of the program, as long as the individuals maintain this sound position on bidding, there can't be too much go wrong.

For when all companies are free to offer programs of insurance, the town is certain to be better served than allowing only one company to bid.

Choice Appears Good

We trust the Selectmen have made an excellent choice of a town manager, in the person of Thomas E. Duff, manager of Claremont, N. H.

An examination of Mr. Duff's background, through his application and biographical data, plus the prompt and favorable references, results in the conclusion that he appears to be qualified by education and experience to face the challenging task of initiating the manager system here.

The Selectmen, who talked with him twice, were favorably impressed by those conversations.

We certainly wish Mr. Duff all the success in the world. And we recognize that he is going to meet some tough problems when he arrives in June.

One of the best ways for us all to help him solve them is to keep off the man's back while he gets acquainted and studies the town's needs. Nothing would be any more unsettling than to have townspeople, or especially town officials, begin to heckle the new man before he can get acquainted with the community.

Let's give him sufficient time to decide on a progressive administration for the community

10 Years Ago — May, 1949

The Selectmen have refused to approve the tree warden's request for a pay increase from $56 to $70 weekly. The tree warden has given his men a raise, and shortened the work week to 40 hours. The Selectmen said his personal request should go before a regular town meeting.

Many complaints have been received at the police station about youngsters riding bikes on the sidewalks. Several persons claim to have been nearly hit by the bikes.

Police are investigating complaints that several young men are shooting at mail boxes from car windows. The investigation centers around a section of West Andover.

Another town department has shortened the work week of its men. The Cemetery Department has approved a 40-hour week, four hours less than formerly. But there has been no pay increase for those employees.

For his alertness on the night of March 26, in picking up three Manchester, N. H. youths, riding in a car stolen in that city, officer James R. Lynch will receive a $50 reward from the A.A.A. Officer Lynch stopped the car in Shawshen and, after investigation, held the boys for the Manchester police.

Three men and nine women will be members of the Playground staff this summer, assisting Supt. James D. Doherty. The Recreation Committee also has appointed five life guards and a matron for the swimming area, to assist Donald D. Dunn.

Permits for building construction in April were worth $80,150. New construction alone will be valued at $59,450 of this amount.

What Our Readers Say—

To the Editor of the Townsman:

"Perhaps the only possible way for the town to participate in the parking project behind the Merrimac Valley National Bank is for the town to purchase the property from its owner after the land is improved at the cost of $25,000 for the purpose of parking, and sell it back to the same party for $1.

"Other conditions, such as operation and maintenance, can then be worked out easily."

William B. S. Leong

To the Editor of the Townsman:

"In recent years there has been an increasing awareness of the close relationship between mental health and physical health. In the best seller, 'How to Live 365 Days a Year,' Dr. J. A. Schindler gives convincing reasons for believing that over 50 percent of the illnesses for which people go to doctors are due to emotionally induced disturbances. He argues that the complexities of modern life involve us in tensions which, if not relaxed from time to time, can impair our physical health.

"How can tensions be relieved to bring about a healthier emotional state? He says: 'A fascinating and creative interest apart from your work is an absolute essential for happy living. Two of our basic needs are the needs for new experiences and for creative effort. A good hobby supplies them both. Without a hobby... our minds are more and more apt to try to concentrate upon our troubles.'

"Of an acquaintance he speaks as follows: 'In a mile afoot, he found infinitely more wonders than most people find in 10,000 miles on wheels. He knew every plant, every bush, every tree by its scientific name as well as its common name.' He had developed a capacity for enjoying the common things of nature, which are always at hand.

"Anyone who has a natural history hobby or enjoys walking in the country has experienced the almost miraculous relief from tension and every day cares that go with utter absorption in such activities.

"In our failure to reserve more open land in our communities, aren't we depriving ourselves and future generations of one of the best ways of countering the tensions of life? In the days ahead, we may find life even more difficult and a world more congested than the one we live in."

Lester C. Newton

To the Editor of the Townsman:

"I have read with interest your editorial thoughts regarding rigid restrictions in gravel operations in Andover.

"You may have, in Andover, the best Zoning By Law in Massachusetts. You may have the finest set of gravel regulations.

"But you will find yourself powerless to stop a 'sharpshooter' gravel merchant, if he decides to move in.

"All that the 'sharp shooter' will have to do is to find a gravel pit which was in operation before your Zoning By-Law was adopted. I have no doubt but that there are any number of such pits in your town, and they can be found by a determined man. Their use may have been abandoned for years, and forgotten by the average person.

"The Courts of Massachusetts will not recognize this. They will hold that a 'non-conforming' use still exists, and your 'sharp shooter' will excavate to his heart's content while you will be powerless to stop him.

"The General Laws of Massachusetts affords no relief."

Also on hand, until May 15, is "Picturesque Norway", a film tour that includes cities and towns, farms and her busy coastline. From May 18-29, "Changing Cotton Lands", 20 minutes of the techniques of changing our Southern crop into diversified farming. During June there will be a 25 minute color film "Wyoming Adventure", of general interest to viewers who thrill to our own western states and their beauty.

Aids For Investors

Those who took advantage of the colorful displays along Main Street during National Library Week may have noticed a table on Money, Banking and Investments. The material collected there was only a sampling of the library's holdings for businessmen, investors and budgeteers. The magazines included Barron's, Business Week, Editor and Publisher, The Executive, Federal Reserve Bulletin, Forbes, Harvard Business Review, Nation's Business, Sales Management, Printers Ink, Survey of Current Business and Wall Street Journal. All these and the CCH Tax Guides and Moody's Investment Manuals were taken from the library's files. Among the books on view were "Business Barometers For Profits, Security and Income", Babson; "Your Family Without You", Caine; "Security Analysis", Graham; "Banks and Politics in America", Hammond; "Managing Your Money", Lasser; "Teach Your Wife To Be A Widow", Rogers; "Selecting Stocks To Buy For Profit", Roth; "How To Plan Your Financial Security", Washington. Readers are invited to look over the entire financial book sections at the library.

Most In Demand

The following books are most in demand by readers who have asked for the new books at the library, and the reserve list shows how much Andover readers follow the trend of readers in many areas of United States. Most wanted in fiction are Dr. Zhivago, Pasternak; The Ugly American, Lederer; From The Terrace, O'Hara; Mrs. 'Arris Goes To Paris, Gallico; Watch That Ends The Night, MacLennan; Lady L, Gary; Breakfast At Tiffany's, Capote; Nine Coaches Waiting, Stewart; Storm In The Village, Miss Read; Summer's Lease, Pendergast; Victrola, Keyes; The Watsons, Coates; The Middle Age Of Mrs. Eliot, Wilson; Ask My Brother, Wagner; April Harvest, Budd; End Of Violence, Benson; Lion And The Rose, Oliver. Most heavily reserved in the non-fiction are these titles: Only In America, Golden; Mine Enemy Grows Older, King; What We Must Know About Communism, Overstreet; Twist Twelve and Twenty, Boone; Collision Course, Moscow; Elizabeth The Great, Jenkins; Friends And Enemies, Stevenson; Crossing Of Antarctica, Fuchs; Illustrated History Of Paris, Lafont; Long Way From Missouri, McBride; Main Street USSR, Levine; Mary Astor, Her Story, Astor; The Merrimack Holden; Other Schools And Our King; Pig In The Barber Shop, Smith; Princess Margaret, Hall; The Professor And I, Van Dore; Waist-High Culture, Griffith.

Movies For Young People

Ballardvale young people will have the last movie and story hour of the season on Monday afternoon, May 11 at 4 o'clock, in the branch library. "Beaver Valley" is to be the movie shown. It lasts over half an hour, and shows, in color, the life of a beaver through his cycle of seasons; here is the beaver meeting his daily needs, building his house, and trying to win the affection of a lady beaver. All are cordially invited.

Andover boys and girls will have the same program the following day, Tuesday, May 12 at 4 o'clock in the main library. This will be the last movie and story hour of the season, until the reopening of school in the fall.

Party For Cardinals

The last day party for the Cardinal group of Littlest Listeners will be held at the library Wednesday morning, May 13, at 10 o'clock. This will be in the form of a party for the last day of the year. Mothers are asked to remain in the room with the children.

Book Suggestions

Among the letters written to various readers of Andover telling what books have meant in their lives, two others suggest titles of particular interest and help. Mrs. Marcia Michel chose to list books which have been of interest and great service to the members of her Resource Committee of the League of Women Voters. This year the committee elected a study and present to the members a general review of United States global policy. Such books as George F. Kennan's "Russia, The Atom And The West", Ernest LeFever's "Ethics And The United States Foreign Policy", and Shepard S. Jones' "America's Role In The Middle East" were invaluable in compiling the needed data. Mrs. Michel stated a brief pamphlet of the Headline Series, published by the Foreign Policy Association, "Should The U. S. Change Its China Policy" was also recommended to readers in Mrs. Michel's statement.

A second letter from a painting enthusiast was written by G. Gustaf H. Larson, who finds in water color one of the most interesting media for self expression. Eliot O'Hara's two books, "Making The Brush Behave" and "Making Watercolor Behave" have proven valuable to him, as has Ted Koutzky's "Ways With Watercolor" and "Painting Trees and Landscapes". For those who work with oil, Mr. Larson suggested Stanley Woodward's "An Adventure In Marine Painting".

During National Library Week the Andover Townsman published a number of letters from Andover readers who had found what they needed in books of many types. As proof that Andover people read their papers thoroughly, the library reported that readers were in the lists clipped from the paper published the previous day.

There are still booklists of selected titles in a number of fields which were featured in the main street book fair. Any reader is welcome to any number of these lists, at the Memorial Hall Library.

Revoked Permit Of Gravel Pit

The Selectmen have officially withdrawn a gravel pit permit issued to Samuel Nassar in the area behind Scanlon's restaurant on No. Main st. near the Lawrence line.

Operator Norman Scott of No. Andover, who has private business arrangements with Mr. Nassar as to operation of the pit, was present at the Selectmen's meeting Monday night to discuss the action.

It resulted, according to Selectman James D. Wilson, from a series of events last Saturday. He said there were complaints about hauling from the pit, Saturday. And he recalled that the Board previously had told Mr. Nassar to straighten out grades and slopes in the pit before taking any more gravel out.

He and Chairman Eugene A. Bernardin Jr. inspected the operation and, at first, told the equipment operator to stop hauling. This order was refused, Wilson said, unless the order was in writing. Later, the two men agreed that some gravel could be taken out Saturday, but could not be taken from the sides where the slope is greater than 45 degrees.

Later in the afternoon, Selectmen Edward P. Hall and William Stewart stopped in and saw the operation continuing.

As a result, the permit was revoked.

However, following a lengthy discussion Monday night, it was agreed that no more gravel can be taken out until the grades are properly established. It was reported, via Water Supt. Donald Bassett, who took sightings, that two slopes are apparently vertical. There was also discussion of overhanging and other conditions in the area.

When this work is done, there will be a resumption of discussions as to whether more gravel can be removed.

Scott protested Monday night that there has been no violation—claiming that the grades and other requirements must only be completed at the end of the job, not while the pit is being operated.

And he suggested that all permits for gravel pits be suspended, as he claimed that no pit will pass the type of inspection insisted upon by the Board now.

Scott also insisted that he hadn't heard anything about previous conversations between the Board and Nassar.

He claimed that some operators have gone into the pit and dug where they were told not to dig. And he also explained that the former Board of Selectmen had approved the distances from lot lines where work must be halted. These will be, in no case, he stated, less than 25 feet, even after the proper 45-degree slopes are established.

In reference to youngsters playing in the area, and complaints about conditions from nearby residents, Scott commented:

"It's the responsibility of parents to control their kids. We're insured for that purpose and we're insured even if they get buried, too."

There was some discussion about private property which has been affected by the pit operation, and the operator talked this over with the property owner.

At one time during the discussion, Chairman Bernardin suggested that the owner of the pit would have to apply for a new permit if he wanted to take out more gravel. But whether this will have to be done was not made completely clear later in the session, when members felt that, before further discussion, specific problems in the pit must be solved.

Insurance Plan Now Set Up

Specifications for the town employees' insurance, approved at town meeting, are now awaiting the approval of the Selectmen.

The insurance committee named by the Selectmen, with a committee of town employees, went over the details of the specs with the Board Monday night. Some disagreement cropped up over technical details in the specifications, which were to be ironed out this week.

Chairman James D. Doherty reported that a basic agreement had been reached regarding the specs, allowing all companies to bid on all the coverage. Nothing in the specs, he stated, tends to give support to any one company, private or public.

In asking for action on the specs by the Selectmen, he said a target date of June 1 had been established for the beginning of the program. One of the main reasons for having it start then, he stated, is to begin before school closes, so that all the teachers will be available.

Most of the discussion Monday night centered around technical details of the program, and of what information the bidders should supply.

Albert Cole Jr. was spokesman for the employees' committee.

youngsters at the School will be welcome to see the creative art work of School students.

The art program at the High School, according to Miss Frances Dalton, art supervisor, is based on creative thinking. The students learn that ideas from imagination and observation, combined with the knowledge of and an understanding of the basic principles of art, produce creative and mental growth and creative results.

The students' ideas have been translated into the various media of painting, drawing, clay modeling; wood, form glass and clay carving; mobiles and immobles; hand molded clay forms, silk screen; block prints, printed in ingenious ways; wire sculpture; window murals; and an oil mural for the Memorial Hall Library.

A round-table discussion will take place Sunday on Art and Art Education, to which the public is also invited.

Public Challenged To Be The Jury

"Now you be the jury!" This challenge is made to the visiting public at the Addison Gallery of American Art at Phillips Academy, upon the announcement of the extension of the exhibit, "Massachusetts Crafts Today."

Originally scheduled to close May 3, the show will now run to May 17. The exhibit has served as the source from which a special jury of the Boston Arts Festival selected the Massachusetts portion of the New England Crafts exhibit to be held in the Boston Public Garden June 5 — 21. The visitor to the Addison Gallery can, therefore, "play games" by testing his taste against that of the experts. The work receiving the largest number of popular votes will be recommended to the Art Committee of the Addison Gallery for purchase.

The Andover exhibit consists of 131 works by 68 craftsmen. Fabrics for wear and upholstery, curtains and rugs, chairs and coffee tables, tableware, jewelry, pottery, a child's feeding table and even an outdoor cooking stove are among the varied items which comprise the exhibit. Many works are for sale.

The Addison Gallery is open without charge to the public weekdays from 9 to 5, Sundays 2:30 to 5.

SPECTACULAR CRACK-UP — Officer Duncan Cairnie inspects the wreckage of a sports car that snapped off the utility pole on Haggett's Pond rd., prior to ending up on its side. Two were injured in the crash.

2 Injured When Car Snapped Pole

Two men were admitted to the Lawrence General Hospital last Saturday night, after their car smashed into a pole on Haggett's Pond rd.

The car snapped off the pole at its base, and the vehicle overturned.

Richard W. Union, 35, 11 Burnham st., Somerville, owner and driver, was reported to have been pinned inside the sports car. The passenger was Theodore R. Whitman, 40, 197 Haggett's Pond rd., according to police.

Union was treated for left hip and head injuries and abrasions of the forehead.

Whitman received a questionable head injury and lacerations of the forehead.

Sgt. James R. Lynch said the car was headed south when it struck the power pole, broke the pole, then turned over.

Officers Duncan Cairnie, Henry Gianno and Warren Maddox investigated.

GRASS FIRE EMPTIED SOUTH ELEMENTARY

Over 500 pupils speedily, and quietly, filed out of South School Tuesday at 1 p.m., when an 11-year-old student pulled the fire box.

Fire officials said the lad was playing with a magnifying glass and started a grass fire that started to spread. He pulled the box, emptying the school. The relief was sounded at 1:29 p.m.

PARISH UNION

A regular meeting of the Union of the West Church will be held next Wednesday, May 13, at 2 at the home of Miss Helen Yeaw. Miss Yeaw, who made a trip to the Holy Land, will give an informal talk on her experiences.

Wants Recreational Areas In Proposed Sub-Divisions

Harold R. Rafton of Alden rd., in a letter to the Planning Board, has urged that body to require developers to provide substantial recreational areas within their sub-divisions.

Rafton, who is active in the Andover Village Improvement Society, and who heads the land acquisition committee of that Society, said in his letter that such recreational areas would "be in the public interest".

Under the state law, developers may be required to set aside land for recreational areas — but the town must purchase the land from the developer within three years, or it reverts to him. The developer may, of course, give the land to the town, which requires acceptance at a regular town meeting.

Among developers setting aside recreational areas have been Carl Stevens, in West Parish Acres and Harry Axelrod, in the Wild Rose Farm area. The Planning Board has asked Realty Construction Co. to do the same in its development in West Andover, and it is reported that the reaction was favorably received by Judge Sartorelli, representing the firm.

In the memory of town officials, there has been, as yet, no case where the town has been faced with the deadline for purchasing the recreational land from the developer, or losing it completely. Nor can the officials recall any case where the town has been asked to accept a gift of the land.

The Rafton letter, calling attention to the problem, follows:

"A number of large building projects are before you in various stages of development, up to the point of obtaining final approval of your Board.

"These involve many problems relating to town facilities, which doubtless have been or are being considered. I have, however, noted no mention of recreational requirements.

"Inasmuch as each development brings in a large number of children, would it not be desirable to require all large developers to hold open within their developments substantial areas for recreational purposes?

"Consideration of this point will, I believe, show that it is in the public interest to require developers to provide these areas.

Urge Friends To Write Bob Mosher

A 15-year-old local boy, who underwent a rare "open heart" operation last week, is reported to be convalescing at Children's Hospital, Boston.

Robert E. Mosher, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Mosher of Haggitt's Pond rd., has suffered from birth from what was diagnosed as pulmonary stenosis, a narrowing of one of the heart blood vessels, which slowed down the flow of blood and kept him from too strenuous activity.

The operation performed last Wednesday by a team of specialists headed by Dr. Robert Gross, was performed to remove the obstruction and permit freer flow of the blood through the system.

The operation is one that would not have been possible a few years ago before the invention of the artificial heart, a machine which is connected to the patient's blood vessels during surgery and actually takes the place of the heart. The heart itself is completely removed from the body and worked on in comparative leisure.

Without the operation, doctors predicted that the youngster would have been liable to heart failure when he reached his 20's.

The large quantities of blood needed as part of this unusual operation were supplied by the Boston branch of the American Red Cross, according to the boys' parents.

Robert, an eighth grade student at Andover Junior High School, is expected to remain at the Boston Hospital for another two weeks before being allowed home and his parents are requesting all his friends to write to him at the hospital.

be in Andover, this time to obtain A-positive blood for a local 16-year-old girl. Dr. Robert A. Gross of the Children's Hospital will repair her heart the following day.

These heart operations, which offer the hope of giving the children a normal life, are impossible without a generous supply of blood of the proper type. The Red Cross hopes that donors of A-negative and A-positive types will call headquarters to offer their blood for the lives of these two children.

MOSQUITO PROJECT
CREATES INTEREST

meeting to withdraw from the project, but did not make a formal decision.

The law allows a community to withdraw this first year, if action is taken before Aug. 11. The next possible time to get out of the project would be 1962, it was stated at the meeting.

Few Meetings

The project was established under Chapter 516, Legislative acts of 1958, and originally involved the county commissioners. But Maclaren's report said those county officials had disassociated themselves from it completely.

A special commission, of seven members, has been appointed, as of Dec. 12, 1958. The only area representative is John J. Sirois of Lawrence. Others come from communities in other sections of the county.

Mr. Sirois, contacted Tuesday, said he believes the Commission has met about three times - but couldn't do much because there was no money available.

Many Withdraw

The Maclaren report stated that the project comes under the State Agriculture Department, but is completely separate from the pest control programs that involved spraying near the Harold Parker State Forest last year.

The report quoted a Dr. D. I. Gerry of the Department as stating that many towns are getting out of the program, although he did not have a count specifically. It was also suggested that, if too many of the county communities withdraw, there may never be a control program.

Maclaren suggested that, if the town acts on withdrawal favorably, there may be a chance that some of this year's money will be returned by the state next year. And withdrawal would prevent assessment next year and each year until 1962, he said. There is no way to estimate the amount of any future assessments.

It also was explained that the town had been given estimates on local spraying, which indicated a price of $15 hourly - and, for comparison, that 32 miles of streets could be sprayed in eight hours. Board members commented on the apparent difference between the estimates for local spraying and the cost for the county project, as assessed by the state.

One official has commented that the town could spray every week, all summer, and still not use up more than half of the amount now going to the state in the county project.

Commission Members

The following men have been appointed to the Commission, according to an Agriculture Department spokesman:

Kenneth Knowlton of No. Beverly, chairman; Dr. John J. Toomey of Salem, secretary; Dean Cushing of Gloucester, John K. Doherty of Ipswich, Mr. Sirois from Lawrence, Godfrey Torrey of Topsfield, and Richard White Jr. of Lynn.

As far as could be determined Tuesday, the Commission members are unpaid.

Reports from the group's meetings are sent to the state's Reclamation Board, which receives similar reports from other Commissions in the state. That group meets the first Friday in each month.

It could not be learned Tuesday whether the Essex County project has required the expenditure of any funds, from those assessed against the communities. Nor was it possible to learn whether there is any program for work this year, or for planning a control project on a county-wide basis.

Offer Assistance

The Taxpayers Association, according to Eugene A. Bernardin Jr., chairman of the Selectmen, have offered to print a mailing piece to every home, in support of obtaining a quorum at a special town meeting, if one is summoned. Other Board members reported receiving calls and comments indicating that voters would attend the meeting, if called.

The Board agreed to have Town Clerk George Winslow determine an approximate cost of a special town meeting, and will reach a decision on the subject soon.

Annual Meeting
Planned By PTA

The annual meeting of the Central Elementary P.T.A. will be held Wednesday evening, May 13, at 7:45 in the Central School Auditorium.

At this time, a program by two groups of children will be presented. Miss Kyle's fifth grade class and Mrs. Boyle's sixth grade class will present typical assembly programs. Due to the participation of the children in the program, there will be no classroom visitation at this meeting.

The business meeting will be held immediately following the program. Annual reports will be given and the report of the nominating committee will be presented.

PERSONALS

Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Strong, formerly of Lowell st., have moved into the Anderson house on Cutler rd.

Miss Jane Stewart of Virginia rd. spent several days last week with her friend Miss Shirley Higgins of Woburn.

Mrs. Helena Pray of Haggett's Pond rd., is a medical patient at the Lawrence General Hospital.

PIKE SCHOOL PLANNING FAIR

for later in the day.

The Bargain Box will have something to offer for the parents of all children. It will include children's clothing of all sizes. This feature has always attracted the interest of the parents whose children outgrow clothes before they are outworn. In addition, there will be cakes to buy and grabs to grab.

Lefty Gomez, a former Yankee "great" of pitching fame, will be on hand to show some of his secrets to boys who are interested in learning more about the finer points of baseball. All will be given a chance to out-pitch him at regulation pitching range. There will be self-propelled machines, fortune telling and snapshots, and last year's ample game area will be enlarged to include more games of skill such as ring-tossing, penny-pitching, nail-driving and ball-throwing at a moving human target.

The chairmen of the various committees, assisted by many parents and friends of the local day school, are:

Auction, Mrs. Horace Stevens; Bakery, Mrs. Kenneth Carpenter; Bargain Box, Mrs. Paul Crane; Games and Rides, Mrs. P. Hayden Clark; Fortune Teller, Mrs. G.G. Waterston; Grabs, Mrs. Irving Willis; Photographs, Mr. and Mrs. Roland Hammond Jr.; Refreshments, Mrs. Frederic McCabe; White Elephants, Mrs. Sherman Seeche; Posters, Mrs. Margaret Cross; Mrs. Herbert Farnsworth; Mrs. William Rich; Signs, Mrs. Donald Amy; Admission to Gate, Undergraduate Council.

offer prayer, and a welcoming talk will be given by League President Charles R. St. Clair. There will be a flag raising ceremony, during the rendition of the National Anthem.

Chairman Eugene A. Bernardin Jr. of the Board of Selectmen is slated to throw out the first ball, with Mrs. William Monroe, Auxiliary president, attempting to hit the season's first home run.

Behind the plate will be Frank Brigham — Andover's "Mr. Baseball".

If rain should occur, the festivities are slated for Sunday afternoon at the same time.

In charge of the opening day arrangements is Al Carpentier. He has arranged with the Andover Society, which is sponsoring the Clown Town at the Playstead Saturday, to have the latter event held in front of the bleachers. This will keep the regular diamond open for the Little League games.

Seniors Planning Financial Projects

A series of projects are being planned by members of the senior class at the High School, as part of "Senior Month".

The various activities will furnish money for Senior Week activities and for the yearbook.

A bakery sale is coming May 9 at Hill's Hardware on Main st., from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m.

The same day, there will be a car wash in the Junior High parking lot, from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.

And May 23, the students are planning for a paper drive.
